London, February 29.

Yesterday arrived the Mails from Holland, France, and Flanders.

Algers, January 15.

TH E Regency of this City has given Orders for fortifying the Mole at the Entrance of this Harbour: This Precaution is taken upon Advice that the Dutch are sending a Squadron into the Mediterranean. 'Tis reckoned, that 20 Vessels of one kind or other, fitted for Privateering, have lately gone out of this Port, but as yet they have only sent in one Dutch Prize.

Genoa, Feb. 16. Advices from Marseilles say, that several Gallies, together with two or three Men of War are fitting out there, in order to sail to Tunis, to oblige that City to give Satisfaction for the Injuries committed by their Privateers upon the Flag of France.

Liège, Feb. 17. The Joy we are filled with upon the Election of our new Bishop, is beyond Expression, upon Account of his extraordinary Character, being in every Respect qualified for that high Dignity. We are in Hopes also he will make his constant Residence here, and then the 300000 Ducats, the Income of this Bishoprick, will be spent amongst us. This Count George Ludmwig von Berghes, now our Bishop and Prince, was born at Brussels; he is about 60 Years of Age, and was Uncle to the Prince of Berghes, lately deceased at Brussels.

Madrid, Feb. 15. On the 9th Instant, the Royal Standard of this Kingdom was displayed at the Proclamation of King Lewis, the first of that Name. The Count d'Altamira, Grand Rigidor of Spain, performing the Office of Standard Bearer, in Quality of the Duke of St. Lucar, went to the Palace-Square, accompanied by all the chief Magistrates of this City, the Grandees of the Kingdom, the Nobility of Castille, Counts and Marquesses, with other Persons of Distinction, preceded by four Heralds of Arms. The King making his Appearance in the Front Balcony of the Palace, and the Infantes to one adjoining, the King at Arms attended a Stage erected for that Purpose in the Palace-Square, and cried three Times, Give Ear; Silence. After which, the Count d'Altamira holding the Standard of Castille displayed, flourished it three, at each Time crying with a loud Voice, Castille, Castille, Castille, for our Lord the King, Don Lewis the First, whom God preserve! To which the People answered, Amen; Vive, Vive, Vive. The same Company went afterwards to the Square of the Royal Monastery of the Carmelites, and likewise to that of the Town-House, where the like Proclamation Ceremony was repeated, and the Royal Standard fixed to one of the Balconies of the Town House, the King's Picture being placed underneath with a rich Canopy of State over it, to be continued there publicly exposed for a Week, to the View of all the People. This last Ceremony being ended, the Count d'Altamira went to his own House, and gave a splendid Entertainment to all the Nobility who assisted at the Proclamation. In the Evening fine Fireworks were played off in all the publick Squares, and Bonfires and Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy, were made throughout the City. Advices from Cadix say, that the Frigate St. Joseph arrived there the 9th Instant, having sailed from thence the 19th of June last with the Fleet commanded by Don Antonio Serrano. The Officer commanding the Frigate reports, that of the 18 Ships which composed that Fleet, 16 got safe into Vera Cruz the 20th of September past, and the other two the 15th and 25th of October following. The new King and his Council are extremely well satisfied at the Receipt of Letters dated the 25th past from Cambray, containing News of the original Acts of Investiture of the Dutchies of Tuscany, Parma, and Placentia, being delivered to our Plenipotentiaries by those of the Emperour.

Cambray, Feb. 29. Yesterday the Marquess de Beretti-Landi, Plenipotentiary of Spain, gave a great Ball at his House to above 150 Persons of Distinction, who were afterwards entertained with an Ambigu of all kinds of cold Meats. There is no Room to doubt of the present Congress having a good Issue, to the Satisfaction of all the Potentates concerned in it.

Paris, March 4. Publick Notice has been given that on the 6th Instant Payment will be made of Annuity Interest due for six Months past upon the Tailles; Receipts for the same being to be taken upon Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays every Week, from No. 10 as far as to No. 300, so as to continue clearing 300 Numbers each Day of Payment. On the 1st Instant the India Company held a Court, and published their Resolutions on the 2d, setting forth, that on the 6th Instant they will begin to lend 1500 Livres upon each Action for a Month, or for several, at a Discount of half per Cent. per Month; that the Action deposited for the Loan shall belong to the India Company, in case the Borrower does not redeem it within the Time agreed upon. The great Rise of Actions since the late Diminution of the Coin recalls to Mind the wild Proceedings in the Quinquempoix Street in the Year 1720, and before; on the 29th past they got up from 1700 Livres to 1800; on the 11th to 2000; and on the 2d to 2210 Livres. At present they give 15 Louis d'Ors for Refusal of Actions at 2400 Livres for all this Month.

Falmouth, Feb. 24. This Day failed all the outward-bound, and the two Packet Boats for Spain and Portugal.

Plymouth, Feb. 25. The outward-bound are under Sail. The Algerine Rover still remains, expecting to be attended with a Men of War, as mentioned in my last.

Pool, Feb. 25. Came in the Betty Gally from Carolina; The Captain (Daniel) being disordered in his Mind, jumped over-board into the Sea about a Month since, and was drowned.

Deal, Feb. 27. Came in the Elizabeth, Capt. Clark, from the Canaries.
